

Evert Hamblok

Evert Hamblok is an environmental biologist by training and working in the world of regulatory affairs for about 16 years now. For Koppert he holds global responsibilities for direct and indirect market access. This means regulatory affairs but also IP, public affairs and sustainability. His main goal is to accelerate market access and the use of biologicals in the road towards 100% sustainable agriculture.