

Johann Fournil

Johann Fournil joined M2i at its inception in 2013 and has held various sales and marketing positions. He is now Director of Communication & Partnerships, dealing in particular with communication, product development partnerships and impact issues. Previously, he spent more than 15 years within the Peugeot Group, successively in charge of marketing-communication, Export Development, and brand strategy. Johann is a graduate of EDHEC Business School.