

Jordi Uso

Pursued Business Administration studies at Jaume I university, with a Management Masters by IESE Business school.

With a farming family background and an international trade career on several sectors arrived to the agrochemical business 10 years ago through Mirat Fertilizantes, eventually taking responsibility for the North African business of Sipcam in 2018.

Currently responsible for Global sales and development of Biostimulants at Sipcam-Oxon Group, very especially through Sofbey, the dedicated Biostimulant subsidiary of the group.